

Thank you for asking for comments. I oppose the use of cell phones aboard airplanes. It is bad enough to be placed side-by-side with people, crammed into an airplane for endless hours, and then to have to listen to their personal or work conversations would be an added intrusion. I see no reason for it.

Candace Sheehan